

Section 2.1, “Why Be an Entrepreneur” LESSON questions from book page 32-36

1- What are the primary motivation or the greatest rewards for most of the entrepreneurs?

The primary motivation or the greatest rewards for most of the entrepreneurs are not materials at all, but it includes such things as independence, personal satisfaction, and prestige.

2- ‘Being your own boss’ considered as one of the biggest rewards of an entrepreneur, why?

Being your own boss’ considered as one of the biggest rewards of an entrepreneur because, * it gives them the freedom to make their own business decisions. *They have final words on all aspects of the operations. *They can determine the hours of business, product offered, and direction for expansion.

3- Employees are not guaranteed job security, but entrepreneurs are guaranteed, explain.

Employers are not guaranteed job security from their employers, but entrepreneurs are guaranteed as they control their own destiny, as long as the business is successful, entrepreneurs are assured of a job.

4- How entrepreneurs are being recognized within the community?

Entrepreneurs are being recognized within the community by making an economic contribution to the community through their investment in and creation of jobs.

5- Why businesses considered as having an uncertain income?

Business owners can make more money than their employees, but only when business is good. The owner often has to put the money back into the business, and business owners do not get a regular or constant paycheck, this is the reason, businesses considered as having an uncertain income.

6- What are the main reasons, that people do not start businesses and prefer to do a job?

The main reasons, that people do not start businesses and prefer to do a job include: *Lack of experience *Uncertain Income *Fear of losing money/investment.